History

To learn about the history feature in Tiki, see History

2002

The first public release of Tiki was in October 2002, by Luis Argerich. Please also see a listing of All Releases.

2003

In July 2003, Tiki was named the SourceForge.net July 2003 Project of the Month (This article provides nice historical perspective)

Recap of 1st birthday

Article in Linux Mag: http://www.linux-mag.com/id/1407/

September 2003: 1st TikiFest in Paris

2004

1st cross continent TikiFest, in Dakar, Senegal, with mose, marclaporte and yturgeon.

2008

- TikiFest2008-Strasbourg is a turning point in Tiki history with the adoption of 6-month release cycle with LTS.

2009

- Tiki goes jQuery in Tiki3
- Incorporation of the Tiki Software Community Association (TSCA)

2011

- Tiki Suite is announced at Confoo 2011
- Trackers undergo a major revamp in Tiki7 and Tiki8, which paved the way for great development in the following years.

2012

10th anniversary webinar with mose

- 10 Year old birthday webinar: interview with mose, the most influential Tiki contributor for several years

2013

- Tiki moves to Composer

2014

- Tiki goes Bootstrap in Tiki13

2015

- Tiki14 is released.

2016

- Tiki Suite is rebranded WikiSuite and http://wikisuite.org/ is launched
- Tiki15 LTS and Tiki16 were released.

2017

- Tiki17 is released.

2018

- Tiki18 LTS and Tiki19 were released.

2022

- Biggest Tiki Release Ever: Tiki 25

Related

- http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tiki_Wiki_CMS_Groupware#History
- Dogfood
- Model